

May 2022 Newsletter

Dear Families,

While the weather doesn't feel like May as I write this message, I am hopeful that spring temperatures are on their way. Thank you for your support navigating unexpected weather conditions over the last several weeks.

Some highlights of April at Governor Semple School include:

- Weekly Pow Wow instruction during Music class
- Completion of our Seven Teachings Collaborative Art Project (check out our stunning hallway bulletin boards!)
- Bus Evacuation and practicing safe bus ridership
- "First Aid Heroes" for students in grades 4 and 5 through KYAC

We are looking forward to the following:

- Divisional Graduation Pow Wow on May 26th (details to follow)
- Arts in the Park - June 1st – 3rd (details to follow)
- Kindergarten Open House (June 7th)
- Grade 5 Farewell (June 28th)

As always, feel free to touch base anytime. Thank you for your ongoing partnership, support, and care.

All the best,
Sari
