Born into royalty, young Simba spends his days roaming and exploring the grasslands, admiring his father, and just like any child, getting into mischief! When tragedy plotted by his evil Uncle Scar strikes, Simba flees leaving his loss and everything he knows behind. Will Simba return to take his rightful place as king? Will he avenge his father's death? A story for all ages, please join Ecole Seven Oaks Middle School for our annual production, The Lion King Jr. Adapted by the creative minds at Disney into a live stage production, this is a story of love, loss and redemption that nobody should miss!

Power Positif

The Power Positif students have been busy.

In February

- The students made and sold candy grams for St Valentine's Day. In all we made almost $100 for Siloam Mission
- six of the students got together to create a video for the Red Cross Pink Day Film Festival. They attended the showing at the Park Theatre on Feb 22 and the film got a shout out on CTV news that evening.
