

HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION

The superintendent shall be allowed to arrange home tutoring for those students confined to home or hospital for illness or other similar cause up to a maximum length of three months in any particular case. Extensions beyond the three-month period must be approved by the Board. It is understood that normally home tutoring will occur when absences are in excess of ten school days.