February 2019 Newsletter

Room 3 had fun in the extreme cold with a PJ Day!

Our Winter Concert , December 7th at SOPAC was a success !

Reminders: School supervision outside starts at 8:30 a.m.

Cold Weather: Students go outside for recess. At -27° or colder students are kept indoors.

With the cold weather approaching please ensure your child is dressed in warm clothes (i.e. winter jacket, ski pants, boots, hat, mitts, scarf).

News from Room 3

This month we took a very close look at our world by using our Foldscopes; folding microscopes that we put together ourselves. We looked at plant cells, goldfish scales and even water from a turtle tank!

News from Room 11

In room 11 we have been doing a lot of research about our community, and identifying places that are important to us. We have begun to construct some of these areas using recycled materials. We are having a lot of fun creating our buildings and parks and can't wait to put them all together.

Physical Education News

Notes FROM THE MUSIC ROOM

Ms. Lagace Update

It's cold outside but we're warm and having a lot of fun in the music room!

We've been singing and playing the recorder, ukuleles, xylophones, and percussion instruments. The grade 3-5 classes are starting to learn the chords G, C, E minor, and D on the ukuleles, and have tried out a few songs including Ring of Fire by Johnny Cash! Soon we'll be creating our own songs with the ukuleles and hopefully performing them for others!
